

First-ever Client Meet & Greet Session, Cantonment.

Our door was opened to celebrate our community! The cherished clients who have become family came through for an exclusive networking event to connect directly with the leadership team, share insights and discuss the strategic roadmap driving our wealth compounding forward at the New Airport City.

3i Conference at Destiny Arena, Kwabenya.

The Sedan Landbank Team took center stage at the prestigious Destiny Arena for the 3i Conference, where they connected with global fin-tech pioneers, policy makers and high-profile institutional investors to further expand our digital and financial horizons.

AAGC Conference at UG Cedi Conference Centre

The sales team headed to the University of Ghana's iconic Cedi Conference Centre for the Africa Association of Growth Communities (AAGC) Conference. Our team explored sustainable urban development models and strategic real estate partnerships.

Our Client Site Visits Skyrocket, New Airport City.

Interest in our landmark developments is hitting an all-time high! Driven by the dedicated efforts of our Sales and Client Care Teams, prospective client site visits have surged by an incredible 55% this month compared to previous times, recording an impressive client onboarding.

Dear Clients and Partners,

As we step into a new month filled with vibrant energy, I am thrilled to welcome you to this latest edition of our newsletter. At Sedan Landbank, our mission has always been anchored in "Engineering Certainty" across every asset we touch.

This season marks a defining chapter for us. We are not just navigating the market; we are aggressively expanding our footprint, deploying cutting-edge digital portals, and anchoring your investments in high-growth corridors. Your trust fuels our momentum, and we remain fiercely committed to ensuring that your financial legacy remains secure, transparent, and rapidly compounding.

Thank you for building the future of African real estate with us.
